Explanatory Note (not forming part of the Scheme)

The attached copy of the Scheme of Management is in the form approved by the Leasehold Valuation Tribunal and the Lands Tribunal.

1. Pursuant to Section 19 of the Leasehold Reform Act 1967 the Scheme of Management for the Dulwich Estate was approved in January 1974 by Mr Justice Walton in the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division (Reference: 1970 A 4055).

The Scheme has been varied from time to time as follows:

a) By the High Court in July 1990:

i) amendment to Clause 10(b) inserting the words '(or immediately before the end of the fourth year of the period in the case of the period commencing 1st April 1986)' to ensure that the clause was operable for that period, following the abolition of rateable values for domestic properties

ii) amendment to the Schedule to the Scheme, by the addition of Item 12.

b) By the Leasehold Reform Housing and Urban Development Act 1993:

Section 75 (1) substituted the Leasehold Valuation Tribunal for the High Court, as the body with power to approve applications to vary, exclude part of the area or terminate Estate Management Schemes. Clause 13(a) of the Scheme was amended by that section of the Act.

c) By the Leasehold Valuation Tribunal in January 1997:

i) amendment to Clause 10 of the Scheme by the incorporation of 10 (bb) relating to the management charge for the period commencing 1 April 1991

ii) amendment to Clause 13 (b) by substituting the Leasehold Valuation Tribunal for the High Court as the body able to approve transfer of powers under the Scheme

iii) amendment to the Schedule to the Scheme, by the addition of Item 13.

d) By the Leasehold Valuation Tribunal in October 1997:

i) amendment to Clause 1 of the Scheme by the incorporation of:

1(c)(ii) relating to amendment of the Leasehold Reform Act 1967 by the Leasehold Reform Housing and Urban Development Act 1993

1(e)(i) by the insertion of "Clause 4 and"

ii) amendment to Clause 9(a) of the Scheme by the addition of the words "and in relation to enfranchised properties the Managers shall have regard to such statutory provisions as would have applied to such costs of maintenance had the enfranchised properties still been leasehold"

iii) amendment by the addition of Clause 10A relating to the management charge for periods commencing 1 April 1996

iv) amendment to Clause 11 by substituting the base rate of Barclays Bank Plc for the Bank of England Base Rate

v) amendment to Clause 17 by the addition of (c) relating to matters which can be referred to arbitration

- vi) amendment to the Schedule to the Scheme by the addition of Item 14
- vii) amendment by the addition of the Appendix defining the amenity areas.

e) By the Lands Tribunal in March 1998:

Amendment to Clause 1(c)(ii) by the insertion of sub-clause (bb).

2. It has been agreed in November 1999 between the Managers and the amenity societies represented on the Advisory Committee that two inconsistencies between the formal applications made to the Leasehold Valuation Tribunal and the Tribunal's Determination are to be treated as follows:

(i) Clause 10A - Definition of Amenity Expenditure:

The application made to the Tribunal refers to the cost of "cleansing, maintaining or repairing" certain private roads, following the precedent of the Scheme as originally approved. The Tribunal's determination contains a reference to 'replacing' the roads; it is clear from the application and the precedent that the reference could not have been intended; the word 'repairing' is therefore retained in the Scheme.

(ii) Clause 10A(6)(c):

The application made included the word "Manager" in error, in the third line. It is agreed that the word "Managers" is to be used, for consistency with the definition and use of "Managers" in the Scheme generally.

3. In 1994, the High Court considered the test to be applied upon arbitration (Clause 17) when considering whether the Managers' consent had been unreasonably withheld (Clause 15). The Court held that the issue was not one at large as to whether consent should or should not have been given; the issue was whether the Managers acted unreasonably in refusing consent. Accordingly, so long as the Managers reach a decision which a reasonable Manager could reach, their decision cannot be overturned. Copies of the Judgement of the Vice Chancellor, Sir Donald Nicholls, may be obtained from The Dulwich Estate.
4. By a Scheme sealed by the Charity Commission on 31 July 1995, the charity known as the Estates Governors of Allyn's College of God's Gift at Dulwich was re-named 'The Dulwich Estate' and its governing body retitled 'Trustees'. By a Certificate of Incorporation dated 19 June 1998, the Trustees became incorporated. References in the Scheme to the Estates Governors should therefore now be read as referring to the 'Board of the Incorporated Trustees of The Dulwich Estate'.
5. References in the Scheme to the Secretary and General Manager should now read as referring to the 'Chief Executive'.

- (ii) the freehold was acquired from the Estates Governors either (aa) pursuant to Part I of the Leasehold Reform Act 1967 as amended by Sections 63, 64 and 65 of the Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993 after approval of the Scheme by the High Court or (bb) pursuant to Part I Chapter I of the said Act of 1993 or (cc) whether before or after approval of the Scheme by the High Court) on such terms as to make it subject to the provisions of the Scheme.

(d) "the date of enfranchisement" means the date of the conveyance whereby the freehold of an enfranchised property ceased to be the freehold of the Estates Governors

(e) "owner" in respect of an enfranchised property means and includes every person (other than a mortgagee not in possession) who is from time to time occupying or interested in that property

Provided that for the purposes of

- (i) Clause 2(a) so far as it relates to Clause 4 and to reinstatement under Clause 5
- (ii) Clause 11 except in its application to the management charge
- (iii) Clauses 12 and 13

the expression "owner" shall only include a person holding an interest which is freehold or if leasehold was at the time of its creation for a term of 7 years or more and in those Clauses the word "ownership" shall be construed accordingly

(f) "the Scheme" means this Scheme as varied from time to time.

(g) "the Managers" means the Estates Governors or (as regards powers and rights transferred under clause 13 of the Scheme) the body in whom such powers and rights are for the time being vested Provided that if at any time powers and rights under the Scheme shall be vested in different bodies in respect of different areas formerly forming part of the Estate then as regards each such area the expression "the Managers" shall mean the body in which such powers and rights over such area are then vested and the expression "the Estate" shall mean that area

2. (a) The Scheme shall apply to each enfranchised property as from the date of enfranchisement and shall be enforceable by the Managers against every person who shall for the time being be an owner in respect thereof as if such person had covenanted with the Managers to be bound by the Scheme

(b) The Managers shall be treated as the landlord for the time being for the purposes of the Scheme

3. (a) No material alteration shall be made to the external appearance of any building or structure for the time being on an enfranchised property and no new or additional building or structure shall be built or erected thereon so as to be visible at ground level from beyond the boundaries of the same without (in any such case) the prior written approval of the Managers

(b) Before or as a term of giving such approval the Managers may:

(i) require the submission of drawings specifications and details of the proposed works

(ii) impose such reasonable conditions for regulating the redevelopment use or appearance of the property (including conditions relating to the time of commencement and completion of any works and the manner of carrying out the same conditions restricting the period of any authorised use and conditions calculated in the opinion of the Managers to preserve or improve the character of the neighbourhood from the point of view of architecture landscaping or town planning) as the Managers shall think fit

(c) All reasonable costs incurred by the Managers (including the fees of surveyors and other experts) in connection with the application for approval and the consideration thereof whether the same shall be granted or not shall be borne and paid by the applicant and shall be charged upon the enfranchised property

4. The exterior and structural parts of all buildings from time to time on an enfranchised property and all other structures thereon (including boundary walls and fences) shall be kept in good repair and properly cleaned and decorated in a proper and workmanlike manner in colours in harmony with other properties in the vicinity and all gardens thereon shall be kept properly cultivated and free from weeds and all gardens and other open spaces shall be kept free from litter and refuse and in a clean and tidy condition

5. If any building or structure on an enfranchised property shall be destroyed or damaged by fire tempest or other cause the same shall within a reasonable time be rebuilt or reinstated so that (unless the Managers shall have consented otherwise in writing) the exterior of the property shall as far as it is practicable and reasonable in the circumstances be restored to its former appearance

6. (a) Without the prior consent in writing of the Managers no enfranchised property shall be used for any purpose whatsoever other than that for which it could lawfully be used immediately before the date of enfranchisement and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing no property or part of a property which could only lawfully be used for one occupation at that time shall be used for two or more occupations

(b) Without the prior consent of the Managers:

(i) no trees of any kind (other than fruit trees shrubs and seedlings) at any time growing on any enfranchised property shall be lopped topped cut down destroyed or removed

(ii) no temporary building trailer caravan boat or commercial vehicle and no other moveable object to which exception shall reasonably be taken by the Managers or by any neighbouring owners or occupiers shall be placed or kept on any part of any enfranchised property so as to be visible at ground level beyond its boundaries and

(iii) no inscription placards posters advertisements or notices of any kind shall be placed or exhibited on any enfranchised property so as to be visible beyond its boundaries PROVIDED that this restriction shall not apply to notices of a usual character indicating that the property is for sale or to be let or to notices relating to a specific function or event exhibited for a period not exceeding 21 days.

(c) No washing clothing or similar articles shall be hung out or exposed on any enfranchised property so as to be visible at ground level beyond its boundaries save only that the rear garden (if any) may be used for such purposes between the hours of 7.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m. Mondays to Fridays and 7.00 a.m. to 12.00 noon on Saturdays (Good Friday, Christmas Day and other public holidays excepted)

(d) Nothing shall be done upon any enfranchised property which may be or grow to be a nuisance annoyance or damage to any neighbouring owners or occupiers or which the Managers shall reasonably consider to be detrimental to the neighbourhood

7. No owner of any enfranchised property shall park or permit or suffer any resident therein or employee or visitor to his property to park any vehicle on any private road on the Estate so as to cause an obstruction

8. (a) The Managers and all persons authorised by them may from time to time (but not more often than once a year unless in the meantime the Managers have reasonable grounds for suspecting a breach of any of the provisions of the Scheme) on giving reasonable prior notice enter any enfranchised property or any part thereof at any reasonable time for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Scheme is being complied with in respect of that property

(b) Any owner of an enfranchised property to whom notice of any breach of the obligations imposed by the Scheme shall be given by the Managers shall if in default be bound to commence to make good such breach within three months after service of such notice and thereafter proceed diligently with the work and in default thereof and whether or not there shall be any other person also liable the Managers and any persons authorised by them may enter the enfranchised property and take such steps and carry out such works as the Managers shall reasonably think necessary to make good the breach

(c) All reasonable costs and expenses incurred under sub-clause (b) of this clause by the Managers in case of default of the owner shall be recoverable by them and shall be charged upon the enfranchised property

9. (b) All sums payable under this clause shall be paid to and be recoverable by the Managers and shall be charged upon the enfranchised property

10. (a) There shall be payable to the Managers in respect of each enfranchised property a periodic management charge towards the costs incurred by the Managers in respect of the matters specified in the Schedule hereto and in the reasonable opinion of the Managers not otherwise recoverable. The periods for which the management charge shall be payable shall be successive periods of five years from the 1st April 1971 and as regards any broken period from the date of enfranchisement the management charge shall be apportioned in respect of time accordingly

(b) The management charge payable in respect of each enfranchised property for each period shall be such proportion of the total costs of the Managers in respect of the matters aforesaid during the period in question calculated in accordance with paragraph (c) below as the net rateable value of the enfranchised property at the beginning of the fifth year of the period (or immediately before the end of the fourth year of the period in the case of the period commencing 1st April 1986) bears to the total net rateable value at the same date of all enfranchised properties and of all properties owned by the Estates Governors on the Estate

(bb) In respect of the period commencing 1 April 1991, sub-clause (b) shall apply subject to the following special provisions for attributing a net rateable value to all enfranchised properties and all properties owned by the Estates Governors on the Estate as at the beginning of the fifth year of the period in question (hereinafter in this sub-clause called 'the material date?')

- (i) The net rateable value as at 31 March 1990 of each property which had a rateable value as at 31 March 1990 shall (subject to (ii)) be deemed to be its net rateable value at the material date
- (ii) The net rateable value of any property which shall have been demolished on or before the material date shall be deemed to be nil at the material date.
- (iii)
 - (a) As respects any property which (having been constructed on or after 31 March 1990 or for any other reason) had not been attributed a rateable value as at 31 March 1990, the net rateable value which ought to have been attributed to such property as at 31 March 1990 (had it then been constructed) shall be determined by the Managers and shall be deemed to be its net rateable value at the material date
 - (b) In the event of an owner of any such property as is mentioned in (a) disputing such net rateable value, the determination of such value shall be referred to an independent professional valuer, to be appointed by the President of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors on the application of the Managers or the owner. The net rateable value shall then be determined by the valuer acting as an expert. Such determination shall be final and binding in all respects. The fees and disbursements of the valuer shall be met by the Managers, save that where the valuer determines a value equal to or greater than the value appealed against, the fees and disbursements shall be borne by the disputing owner, and the Managers may recover their expenses incurred in respect of the dispute from the disputing owner

(c) The total costs of the Managers for each period in respect of the matters specified in the Schedule hereto shall be taken to be 125 per cent of the actual costs incurred in respect of the matters aforesaid during the first four years of the period

(d) The management charge for each period shall become due on the date three months before the end of that period and shall be payable on that date by any person who is then an owner of the enfranchised property and shall be a charge thereon

(e) The Managers shall keep an account of the debits and credits relevant to the calculation of the management charge and such account shall be audited by a chartered accountant as soon as practicable after the end of the fourth year of each period. The audited account shall be binding upon the Managers and all owners and shall be made available for inspection by owners at reasonable hours by prior appointment and copies shall be made available to owners upon payment of a reasonable fee
